The Message of Easter

By Norman Vincent Peale

God promises that there is nothing to fear in life or even death itself.

Easter is here—with its promise of spring, its big family meals, its inevitable chocolate bunnies and jellybeans. But what does Easter really mean? What message does it bring to us humans knee-deep in messes of our own making?

First and foremost, it means that we serve a risen Savior. The grave could not hold Christ; he defeated death. He paid the price for our sin with his own blood. And the consequences for us are huge.

“For if, while we were God’s enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life!” (Romans 5:10). Because Christ lives, we will live, too—both in this life and in the life to come. Jesus said, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die” (John 11:25-26).

“Challenged to Change”:

Repositioning our Perspectives, Perceptions, and our Patterns for Greater Service.

{Matthew 9:17}

Article Continued ...

The message of Easter was first spoken to two women at Jesus' tomb, in these simple words: "Do not be afraid...for He is risen" (Matthew 28:5-6). Jesus is with us and gives us his ability to overcome any defeat. The true Christian realizes that he, with Christ, rises above every setback, every obstacle and enters into the true meaning of living.

The Easter message tells us: You need not be afraid of anything—not life with all its insecurities, its conflicts, its uncertainties; not afraid of even death itself. You need have no fear—no fear!

When your spirit is filled with the unshakable strength of God in the name of Jesus Christ, you get faith so deeply planted within you that when crises hit you—as they sometimes do suddenly—you automatically can look life in the face and not be afraid. You can say with the Apostle Paul, "For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 8:38-39).

Easter is here. Be transformed. Be resurrected. Be not afraid!

TRUST AND CONFIDENCE

Matthew 26:36-46
Author: Carol L. Baldwin

Picture Jesus. Alone in the Garden of Gethsemane, deserted by even his closest disciples, he is preparing to face the painful death of crucifixion. Not only will he die an innocent man; he will experience a bitter separation from his heavenly Father and the agony of bearing the punishment for the sins of his people. How does our Lord respond at this moment of tremendous trial and testing? His simple yet powerful response pricks our consciences as he speaks the ultimate prayer of trust and confidence: "My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me, Yet not as I will but as you will" (Matthew 26:39). Can there be a more graphic demonstration of trust in God? Can there ever be a better example of submission to our heavenly Father's will?

Jesus' actions and attitude provide a model to all believers of how we are to face the difficult tasks, and the emotional, spiritual or physical struggles that God ordains for us. Scripture reminds us that we are not to be surprised when suffering and trials come into our lives (1 Peter 1:6-7; 4:12-13); rather we are to rejoice that God is refining in us the precious jewel of faith which is of far greater worth than gold.

Every problem with our children, each disagreement with our husbands, each stressful assignment at our jobs provides an opportunity to call on God to strengthen our faith, to develop our perseverance, to build our character and to ground our hope deeper in him (Romans 5:3-4). May God grant us an increase in our trust in him, even as Jesus displayed. May he build in us precious Christian character, refined in the furnace of his discipline and love.

Points to Ponder

Give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be given to you. For the same measure you measure it will be given back to you. Luke 6:38

Avoid negative people, for they are the greatest destroyers of self-confidence and self-esteem. Surround yourself with people who bring out the best in you!

April Solomonite Spotlight is Bro. Blair Taylor

Blair Taylor is a faithful disciple of Solomon's Temple. Blair serves on the Men's Ministry, Single's Ministry and Trustee Ministry. He is the son of Bro. Ray and Sis. Lena Holmes. Blair has endured some adversity in the past year. Yet hope is found in Psalm 34:15, 17 (NIV) "The eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and his ears are attentive to their cry; The righteous cry out, and the Lord hears them; he delivers them from all their troubles." Solomon's Temple would like to congratulate Blair for being this month's "Solomonite Spotlight".

SOLOMON'S TEMPLE PRAISE DANCE MINISTRY

We, the praise dance ministry come together as one. We are many individuals but one team. We all have been challenged to change in many ways. Our dance performances of worship is not to promote ourselves but ministry to lift up Jesus. Our focus is that we must see ourselves and behave as worship leaders who dance to inspire others to worship Jesus. We pray and ask God to let our dance be used to lead the people of God into worship. We all have been challenged to change our mindset of what a dance ministry is about. As we make that change, we are sure we will become powerful worship leaders. It is with all of us that we want to pour ourselves into the ministry. We want to minister the dance, not just dance the dance.

Spoken words from some of the ministry: Shenille Gray: Sometimes, when I miss church and I am going through things, my ministry member will call and remind me that we all go through things but we have to keep pushing. Always words of encouragement from one another. June Little: The ministry has helped me to move closer to God and the people in the ministry. I learned how to speak out more. Beretta Smith: This ministry has really brought us closer together and we are on one accord for the Lord. I feel we need to continue to lift each other up because if one part of the ministry is broken then we all are broken. I thank the Lord we are back to dancing now. Watch the ministry grow. I love my sisters! Wendy Green: This ministry is like an outlet for me to openly express the way I feel towards God through dance. I love to be able to tell a story through dance and moves. Some though preaching, singing and other ways but we minister through dance. Look at God! I love the FACT that we never want the spotlight on us but always toward God. So much more I could say..... Solomon's Temple—Get Ready, Get Ready, Get Ready and watch the dance ministry dance all over the Temple. The anointing is upon us to minister in the dance. And for everything we give ALL PRAISE, GLORY, and HONOR to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We pray that this ministry will bless you here at Solomon's Temple to open up to praise God. It reminds me of a song—When all of God's children get together Oh what a time, Oh what a time. David didn't just dance; he danced with all of his might because he recognized that he was in the presence of the Great I Am and "In his presence there is fullness of joy." (Psalm 16:11)

Dancifully submitted,

Solomon's Temple Praise Dance Ministry

Organ donation is the process of giving an organ or a part of an organ for the purpose of transplantation into another person. Organ donation can occur with: a deceased donor, who can give kidneys, pancreas, liver, lungs, heart, intestinal organs or a living donor, who can give a kidney, or a portion of the liver, lung, intestine, or pancreas

Tissue Donation

Donated tissues such as skin, bone and heart valves can dramatically improve the quality of life for recipients, and even save lives.

One tissue donor can enhance the lives of more than 50 people.

More than half of the national transplant waiting list is made up of multicultural populations. That's because some diseases of the kidney, heart, lung, pancreas and liver that are best treated through transplantation are found more frequently in these populations.

Although it is possible for a candidate to match a donor from another racial or ethnic group, transplant success rates increase when organs are matched between members of the same ethnic background.

Learn the Facts

Despite continuing efforts at public education, misconceptions and inaccuracies about donation persist. Learn these facts to help you better understand organ, eye and tissue donation:

Fact: Anyone can be a potential donor regardless of age, race, or medical history.

Fact: All major religions in the United States support organ, eye and tissue donation and see it as the final act of love and generosity toward others.

Fact: If you are sick or injured and admitted to the hospital, the number one priority is to save your life. Organ, eye and tissue donation can only be considered after you are deceased.

Fact: When you are on the waiting list for an organ, what really counts is the severity of your illness, time spent waiting, blood type, and other important medical information, not your financial status or celebrity status.

Fact: An open casket funeral is possible for organ, eye and tissue donors. Through the entire donation process the body is treated with care, respect and dignity.

Fact: There is no cost to the donor or their family for organ or tissue donation.

Fact: Information about an organ donor is only released to the recipient if the family of the donor requests or agrees to it.

To find out how to be an organ donor in your state, visit DonateLife.net.

VERSE OF THE MONTH

John 11:25 (KJV)

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live
