"A Divine Blueprint"

Pastor K. D. Shivers
Exodus 25:8-9

God had a plan for Israel. He showed them the blueprint of how the tabernacle was to be built so that He could dwell with them.

designed for our lives and stop trying to live by the pattern He has designed for someone else's life.

God does everything according to a pattern and based on a principle. A pattern is a design or model that is worth imitating. It is a process that we follow. A principle is a rule or a law. It is a broad basic truth that explains how things work. Just as God had a plan for Israel He has a plan for us. God gives us patterns and principles to live a productive life. We must change into the pattern God has

We are the tabernacle or dwelling place of God's presence on earth and He wants to dwell in us. There are 4 things God is expecting from humankind. They are:

- He expects us to be mature in our words, thoughts, motives, actions and attitudes
- He expects us to be decisive
- He expects us to be consistent
- He expects us to have strength

"Challenged to Change (C2C)"

Repositioning our Perspectives, Perceptions, and our Patterns for Greater Service.

{Matthew 9:17}

SHUT THE DOOR

2 Kings 4:1-7

Author: Jeanette Lockerbie

How often in the course of a day, especially in summer, does the command “Shut the door!” ring out. We shut the door against the inroads of insects, pets, heat (in winter, cold). Springs insure that doors will swing shut even when manipulated by careless or too-tiny hands.

The woman in our reading today had a two-fold need to shut her door. A creditor had come to take her two sons as slaves. She shut in her two boys. She shut out the world around them. A crisis called for nothing less than intervention from on high, and she had no intention of letting outside interests rob her of the answer to her fervent prayer. In her extreme need she gladly heeded the voice of Elisha, the man of God. The abundance of oil that God supplied met her need of paying debts.

We might well wonder what would have happened had she done everything else God commanded, but had left the door open. Distraction and possibly derision might have moved her to abandon the instructions given by the prophet. We can only speculate, but we do know that unless we deliberately shut out the world’s noise there will be little chance to hear the voice of God.

*Lord, I have shut the door,
Speak now the word
Which in the din and throng
Could not be heard
(William M. Runyan).*

Don't let the noise
of the world
keep you from hearing the voice of the Lord.

LIVING SACRIFICES

Romans 12:1-8
Author: Marie Chapian

It is a challenge to live our lives as sacrifices to God. When we do, we aren’t the masters of our bodies and minds – God is. All that we do or think must conform to the Word of God. Such a high calling is impossible without the Holy Spirit’s guidance and help. We cannot make spiritual progress without the Holy Spirit, and that is why in Romans 12:1 the Lord tells us to offer our bodies to him as living sacrifices. If we try to grow and change spiritually without the supernatural empowering of the Holy Spirit, we are conforming to the pattern of the world. The Lord tells us to avoid this by becoming transformed by the renewing of our minds (Romans 12:1-2).

As a sacrificial act of worship, God expects us to be holy and pleasing to him. When I was sharing Romans 12 with a group of young people, one fifteen-year-old girl asked, “Does that mean that everything I do every day – at school, at home, in sports, in art and with friends – all these should be an act of worship to God?” Another student replied, “How can I stay on my knees that long?” We chuckled, knowing that we worship not only on our knees but also as we live our lives. Our everyday lives are important to God, important enough that he sent his Son to die on the cross so that Jesus could live in us through each day – including the ordinary ones.

We can now say: “I’m going to school to worship God.” “I’m going to paint a picture to worship God.” “I’m going to clean the kitchen to worship God.” “I’m going to my job to worship God,” as well as “I’m going to church to worship God.” When we conform to the world’s patterns and methods, we do not please God, no matter how good we feel about ourselves or how much other people approve of us. But we do please God when our minds are renewed. Then we are able to test and approve God’s perfect will (Romans 12:2).

Points to Ponder

The hard thing to understand is that faith is the one area in our lives where growing up means we must grow to be more like a child, trusting simply in the goodness and complete knowledge of a Father who has our best interests at heart.

Colleen Townsend Evans

We soon find it all but impossible to live the Christian life with our own strength and goodness. It is through God's strength that we know courage, and through his power that we know goodness. When we realize this, surrender becomes our priority. Surrendering to him means growth and progress. It is the freedom of moving forward with and through him, so that each of our relationships and all of our work, worship, suffering, and play reflect what he wants of us.

Judith C. Lechman

Faith IS LIKE THE WIND,
YOU CAN'T SEE IT
BUT YOU KNOW IT IS THERE.

March is.....

The National Nutrition Month® (NNM) is a nutrition education campaign sponsored annually by the American Dietetic Association (ADA) and its Foundation. Healthy eating and routine exercise are needed all year round. Be kind to your body and acquaint yourself with healthy eating habits and fitness. Replace your unhealthy habits with smart health choices for a healthier body. Healthful eating fuels physical activities at every stage of life. Fitness is your good health - at its very best.

Staying fit means you have a better chance for a higher quality of life, and perhaps a longer one, too. When you are fit, you:

- improve your mood, reduce your stress, and increase your energy.
- reduce your risk for heart disease, cancer, and diabetes.
- can look and feel your best
- have the physical strength and endurance to do the things you want to do

Dear friend, I pray that you may enjoy good health and that all may go well with you, even as your soul is getting along well. 3 John 1:2 (NIV)

NATIONAL MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS (MS) EDUCATION & AWARENESS MONTH

Multiple sclerosis (MS) affects the brain and spinal cord. Multiple sclerosis (MS) is a disease in which your immune system attacks the protective sheath (myelin) that covers your nerves. Myelin damage disrupts communication between your brain and the rest of your body. Ultimately, the nerves themselves may deteriorate, a process that's currently irreversible.

Early MS symptoms include weakness, tingling, numbness, and blurred vision. Other signs are muscle stiffness, thinking problems, and urinary problems. Treatment can relieve MS symptoms and delay disease progression. Signs and symptoms vary widely, depending on the amount of damage and which nerves are affected. Some people with severe MS may lose the ability to walk independently or at all, while others experience long periods of remission during which they develop no new symptoms.

There's no cure for multiple sclerosis. However, treatments can help speed recovery from attacks, modify the course of the disease and manage symptoms. People with multiple sclerosis (MS) tend to have their first symptoms between the ages of 20 and 40. Usually the symptoms get better, but then come back. Some may come and go, while others linger.

Keep track of your symptoms to help your doctor know whether MS or another condition is to blame.

VERSE OF THE MONTH

Matthew 21:9 (KJV)

And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.
